The wise see knowledge and action as one:

They see truly.

Take either path

And tread it to the same end:

The end is the same.

There the followers of action

Meet the seekers after knowledge

In equal freedom.

Highjinx and a Sphinx

It was a mass, pep rally, parade, game, and dance all in one. One of the highlights of the entire year. It was HOME-COMING 1971. One to remember and cherish. But most of all it was a time of unity when the whole school became one. Number One!

Fr. Thomas Reardon came "home" to celebrate mass and at the pep rally the beauties were introduced to the beasts. Soon afterward the parade was on the road to S.T.A., Loretto, and Sion. And later Friday night the high-flying Hawklet footballers downed the Raytown South Cardinals 41-21.

The climax of the gala festivities came Saturday night when the Broadway Clique dazzled 250 couples with their rocking music inside the Courtyard of the Sphinx. Amid the spectacular decorations Debbie Tripp added immensely to the overall beauty of the weekend as she was crowned homecoming queen.

Special thanks were due George Sroor, Jeff Grasser, Terry Keenan, Bill Ronan, Matt Schuler, and Walt McCormick, who combined to make this homecoming a real coming together.

The Juniors 'Panda' win and did, taking first place in the float contest.

Everybody's Talkin'

In October Rockhurst again hosted a very successful speech tournament. More than 400 persons from four states participated in the nineteenth annual Speech and Debate Tournament. The Rockhurst NFL chapter produced what turned out to be one of the most competitive events in the area.

The Sweepstakes Trophy was carried home to St. Louis by Parkway West while Neosho High School finished a close second place.

This year Rockhurst was honored to have former Supreme Court Justice Charles Whittaker take time to preside over the final round of debate competition. First place in debate was awarded to the Oak Park High team of Paula Fulks and Tom Hawkins.

Dave Owens, of Beachnut fame, takes a stab at a George Sroor pass. The Beachnuts, a Cinderella team, places first at the season at finale, only to lose to Beaven's Baldies in the finals.

War and Peace

Never before has Rockhurst seen a more brutal, suicidal, or downright dirty display of athletics than this year's version of Intramurals. Intramurals is losing 12 of 15 games and still boasting you're the best or it's being down 25 points with 2 minutes left and sinking a half-court hook shot.

In Junior-Senior Football, the Beachnuts and Beavens Baldies ran roughshod over all competition and claimed the two spots in the championship playoff, which the Baldies won. Hups Cups were edged by the Baldies 14-13 for the overall school championship.

Biff Carlew leaps high to secure 2 points.

The Wild Bunch

The Soul Brothers won the Frosh-Soph B-Ball league while Biehle's Ballers took the Junior division. At press time the All Time Lows II were high atop the Senior Karate coalition. The Faculty All-Studs were expected to show up, but little else, for their battle against the Intramural All-Stars.

Earlier in the year Frank Rinaldo won first place in an underclassmen ping pong tournament and slammed away the doubles title with his partner Bob Cattanach.

Also on tap Commissioners Mahon and Sweeney plan to initiate such diverse activities as Acapulco cliff diving, ten man luge, roller derby and All-Star wrestling.

A Mi$$ion

The week beginning on February 21, was marked by that unique Rock-hurst institution called Ugly Man week. The purpose of these six days was to raise money for the Jesuit Missions in Honduras, Central America. And Raise money it did with almost $4100 contributed by the four classes. The various contests and farces provided the impetus needed to collect this badly-needed money. When all was finally tallied, the Juniors came in first with an amazing total of $1445, with the Freshmen second and the Sophomores third.

To increase funds a concert was staged featuring White Eyes and Common Ground. The concert was declared a success and represented a sizable portion of the total amount collected.

Clyde, Them and Us

On January 22, The Bear Mountain Ski Lodge opened its doors to 180 couples with reservations for the night. Rockhurst's Winter Dance was held inside the newly constructed lodge and was a very glamorous and successful opening night attraction.

Upstairs on the second floor the sensational spaced-out soul stomping sounds of Clyd, 'Em, and Her reverberated throughout the confines of the cafeteria. You name it, they played it: Shaft, Sly, Stones, Santana and Chicago along with a brilliant 17 minute medley of their original compositions. Many people frequented the den where a cozy atmosphere was created by a warm fire and fireside chats.

The sights and sounds were enjoyed by all.

Sale-O Sells Out

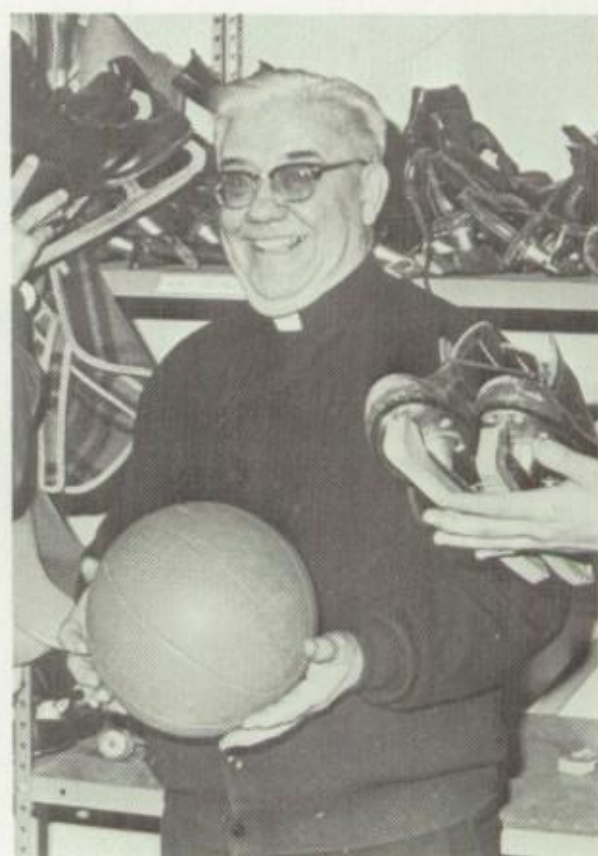

Sale-O-Rama is Rockhurst's answer to a Middle East bazaar. This sale is a major source of money for the school, the goal for this year being around the $30,000 mark. Headed by faculty members Fr. Mario Puricelli and Fr. Steiner, many students and parents got involved. Student chairmen were Dennis McCarthy and Terry Rusconi. Their staff included Kevin Mullane, Rich McBrien, and class representatives Bill Carlew, Paul Smith, Tim Metzler and Tom O'Hallaran. For fine merchandise at a discount rate, the Sale-O is the answer. Besides this, there were four large items sold in a silent auction including a cabin cruiser, a 1965 Ford Thunderbird, an organ and a hypnotic dentist chair in which music is piped in to soothe the patient. A new addition to the sale is the arts and crafts section. In this are included homemade art masterpieces and other OBJETS D' ART.

Terry Rusconi, student co-chairman offers his assistance.

Members of the Mother's Club take a look at the merchandise they spent so many hours in organizing. Without their valuable contribution, the Sale-O could not be the success that it always is.

Father Puricelli takes time off from his Latin classes to help set up the merchandise.

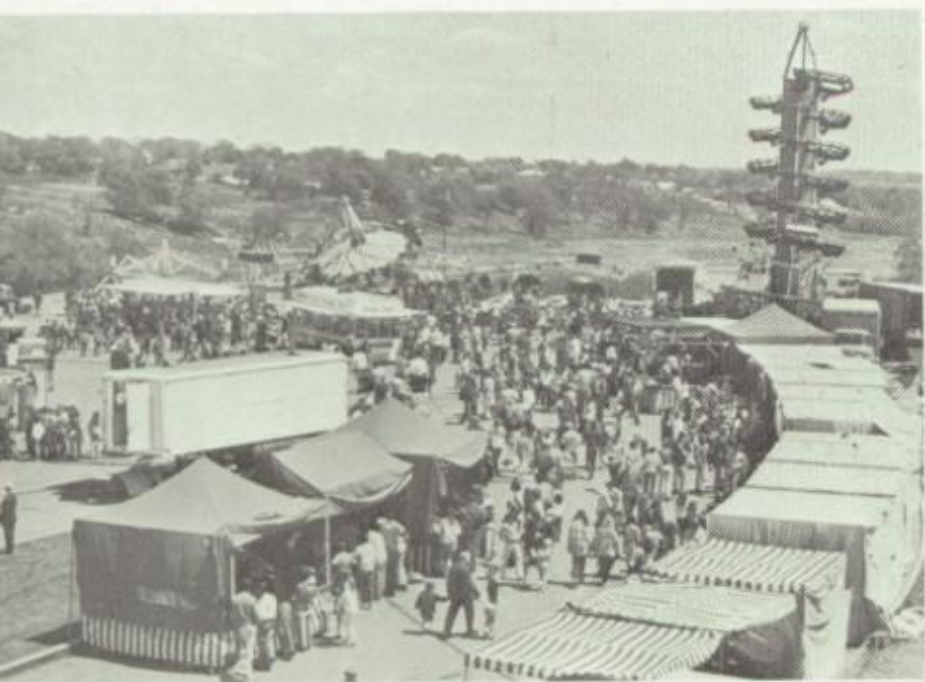

Carney Barnies

Once again on May 5,6,7 occurs that play-time extravaganza called the Rockhurst Benefit Carnival. Between the carnies, the rides and the people, the carny-goers thoroughly enjoy themselves. However, none of this could occur without the outstanding cooperation of students and faculty and parents in setting everything up. Last year's carnival netted nearly $16,000 which was a couple hundred better than the previous year, despite rain showers. This year's carnival hopes to do as well and with good weather could surpass that margin. Planning for the event starts very early in the year with the decision of which rides to use. A 10 member faculty-student committee will assume much responsibility in the way the carnival is run in areas such as booths, concessions, advertising and ticket sales.

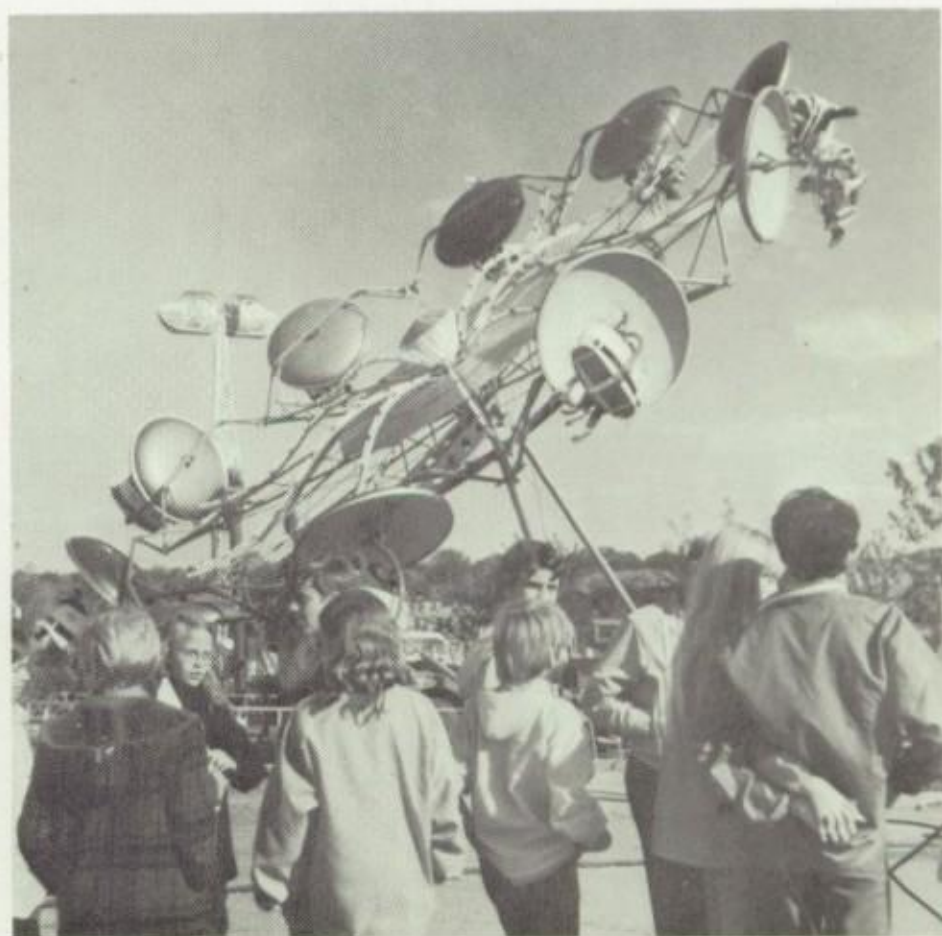

Besides the rides, the main attraction is that group of people lovingly referred to as the carneys. Sweeping down from their St. Joe headquarters they take charge of the mechanical facet of the carnival. This charismatic group, pictured above right, represents many educational and ethnic backgrounds. It is this crowd section of Americana and untiring efforts of parents, faculty, and students that produce perennially a successful carnival.

Need anything be said?

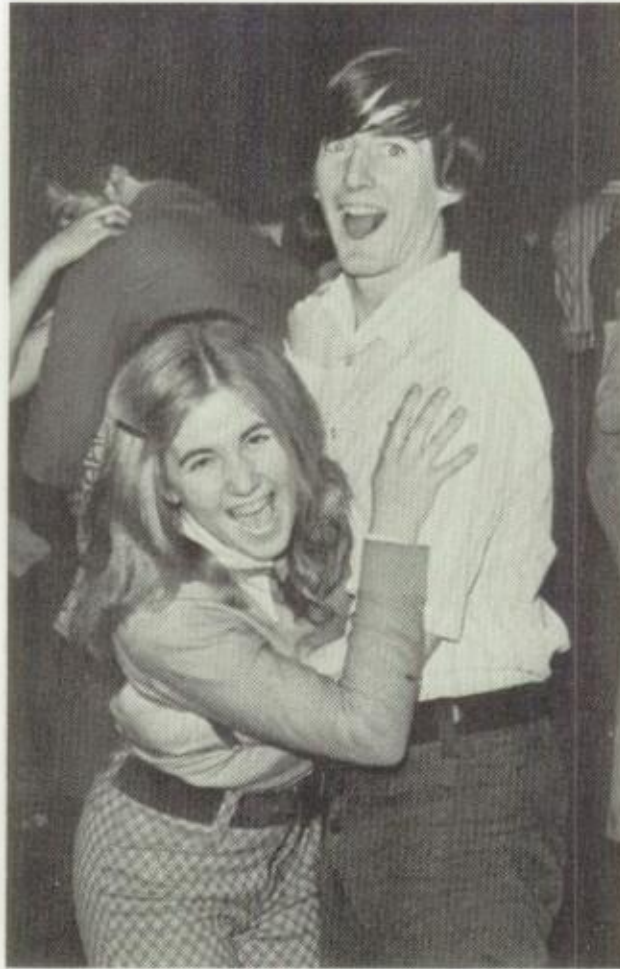

It's crowds like this that make the carnival so successful.

On Board with Budd

The Cuester's fall performance was BILLY BUDD by Herman Melville. Those with major parts were Pat Riehle as Billy Budd, Mike Schopper as Philip Seymore, Matt Schuler as Captain Bere, Dave Nesbit, and Bernie Hauber. This play, a contrast between good and evil, was under the direction of Mr. Jerome Stark. The Stage Crew was an unheralded group of dedicated craftsmen. Under the guidance of Mr. John Sheeley, these men constructed the props that made the dramatic production so realistic.

California or Bust

This year's Spring Musical debuting April 13 and performing the 14th and 15th, and utilized the combined talents of Rockhurst and Loretto. Those with major roles were Terry Rusconi, Mike Schopper, Bernie Hauber, Pete Bartholomew, Matt Schuler, Debbie Tripp, and Louisa Pickett. Mr. Stark again produced a top-notch performance. Mr. McWilliams, Dick Pond, and Mr. Sullivan combined their efforts in producing another unique dancing chorus, with the singing under the direction of Sister Elizabeth Ann. Mr. John Sheeley and his plucky stage crew, created the appropriate sets with their excellent craftsmanship.

Bernie Hauber leaves Chris Girten speechless.

Besides the "major" activities going on at Rockhurst, there were other events of interest which, while important, could not merit a page. To these we dedicate these two pages showing the the diversity fo Rockhurst life. Also on these two pages are pictures that would not fit anywhere else but were, nevertheless, yearbook material, such as the faculty dining room, and other photographic compositions.

Cowan's Crusaders

The Student Council is the hub of school activities, and its job is to coordinate the many student programs around school. This year, the Student Council has handled all the activities with fewer difficulties and no real problems. It represents in some ways a break in tradition. Many who served first semester were re-elected second semester. The policy of the board is also new in that they won't build up the treasury. The money they do take in is given back to the students to spend on worthwhile projects. The Student Board serves as a common ground and coordinating function for chairmen of various activities and it is designed to gather and act upon important information about student affairs. The class Council is the class government headed by the presidents and vice-presidents of each class in order to carry on class business.

NFL Says It All

The NFL season was brought to a close this year with valuable contributions from the debate teams of Seniors Chris Girtten and Gary Plane, Sophomores Greg Buckholz and Terry Stevens. The duet team of Larry Bukovac and Tom Conwell added to the year's success along with individual efforts from John Drape, Steve Rohner, and John Satchell. Veteran Fr. Veltrie, S.J., polished the performance of speakers with his invaluable suggestions and criticisms. New moderators, Mssrs. Michael Sullivan, S.J., and John Hawley, S.J., offered leadership and assistance to NFL members. Michael Bowen, RHS graduate, again contributed his services and experience to the debate teams. The experience gained this year by younger members should prove valuable in future tournaments.

Almost everyone appeared awake at the masses.

The Masses' Mass

The job of planning all of the Midnight Masses belongs to three people; Kevin Doherty, Kevin Miller, and Terry Rusconi. Directed by Mr. John Mahon, S.J., the committee presented Penance Services, slide shows, student sermons and weekly singing by one fo the school.s four choirs. The student planned and student oriented liturgy allowed students a chance to attend mass in an atmosphere suitable to their own style. Great assistance was given by Fr. Thomas Cummings, S.J., Fr. Patrick Lawless, S.J., Fr. Robert Williams, S.J., Fr. Len McCabe, S.J., and Fr. James Veltrie, S.J., who said the masses.

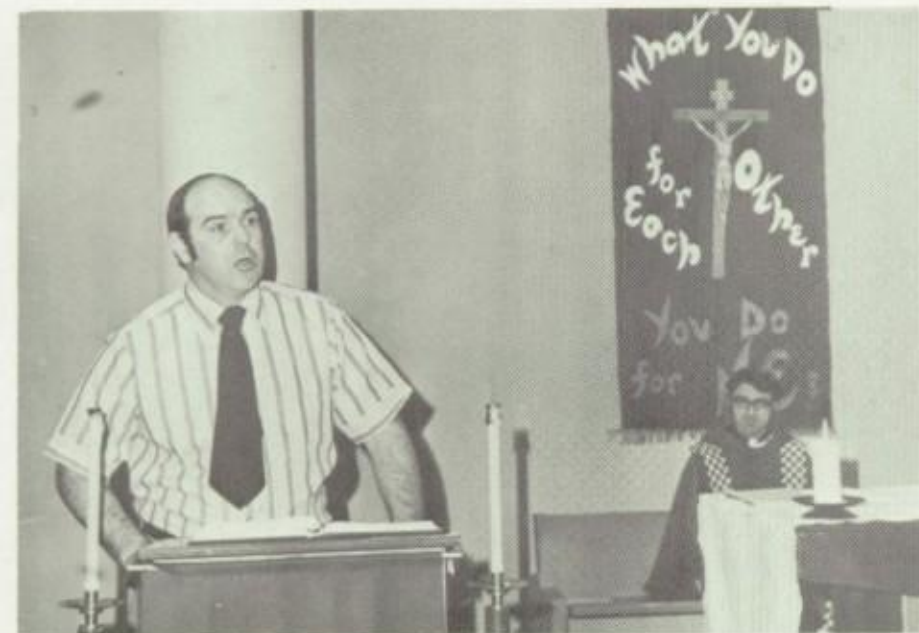

The Pastoral Committee is comprised of faculty and students.

The Friday Community Masses provided a means to worship as a group in one spirit.

Suburban Renewal

Throughout this country Jesuit high schools are responding to a new document of the Jesuit Secondary Education Association called the PREAMBLE. Rockhurst too has tried to make this Ignatian vision come alive in our organization of a Pastoral Committee. Fr. Cummings, as Pastoral Chairman, asked seven faculty members and four students to meet and discuss various ways of implementing this Preamble. The basic purpose of such a committee is to encourage spiritual renewal here at Rockhurst. The faculty retreat in mid-October, the senior-directed Freshman Day of Recollection, the revitalized Mass program, the six new choir groups and other such projects have been initiated to carry out these new directives.

Brother Windmueller reads the liturgy.

Glee Club Radiates Christmas Spirit

This year's Glee Club under the direction of Mr. Ed Acker has proven to be one of the best musical organizations ever at Rockhurst. For the first time, Rockhurst's Glee Club along with that of Loretto performed before the student body, proving the club's maturity over the past few years. In addition, many of the members participated in the chorus of PAINT YOUR WAGON.

This Homecoming goal poster shows the amount of work put into it.

The Banner Planners

Taking care of school propaganda, the Poster Club has mixed artistry with imagination. Many a school event would go unnoticed were it not for this group of men who feel the students should be kept informed. Although the work is thankless, the club members have taken it in stride and continually turn out top quality masterpieces, which are in evidence all over the building. From mixer posters to a goal poster to dance decorations, these men under the direction of faculty moderator Mr. Leo Dressel did the job. The club's biggest undertaking of the year was the full-court basketball poster in the gym. The tremendous artistry was due to the hours of hard work led by Gary Smith. Other artists who helped are Rich McBrien, Gary Biondo, Walt McCormick, Larry Jennings, Tom O'Halloran, Tom Whittaker, and John Benje.

Boys in the Band

Combining the sounds of SANTANA and CHICAGO a new group emerged on the ROCK scene, known or unknown simply as the Pep Band. Blasting out its tunes the band could be heard at home games and at pep rallies spearheading school spirit. The third edition of harmonizers was directed by Mr. Peppino Lynas. Seniors John Phannes (trumpet) and Bernie Hauber (clarinet) held the group together along with sophomore Carlton E. Chinn on the drums. Along with the cheerleaders the Pep Band added a new dimension to Rockhurst enthusiasm at games.

Basketball cheerleaders lead Hawklet cagers out after halftime. (Right) Football cheerleaders assemble their famous 10-man pyramid.

Spirit of '72

This year the Cheerleaders have had little trouble in firing up Rockhurst crowds mostly because of the excellence of our Teams. Nevertheless, they have put forth a tremendous amount of time, energy and effort. The acrobatic stunts, the pyramids, and cheers are not spontaneous but rehearsed and re-rehearsed. All cheerleaders must attend regularly scheduled practices, and under the watchful eye of Coach Pat Cowan, rehearse their act and learn new acrobatics. The Football cheerleaders are Daryl Grovenberg, Dan Coupe, John Halloran, Terry O'Rourke, Terry Welsh, Gus Jimenez, Kenny Kleffner, Steve Daly, Mike Darby, Joe Donnelly, and Dan Ismert. The Basketball cheerleaders are Dan Coupe, John Halloran, Terry Welsh, Tom Owens, Terry McGraw, Chris Muehlbach, Steve Henke, Colin Starks, Tim Roberts, and Daryl Grovenberg.

The Chess Board

The Chess Club, under the direction of Mr. Larry Grau, is a group of students avidly devoted to that ancient, dynamic game called chess. Several times a week, pairs of combatants set up the boards and challenge each other in morbid competition. These valiant gladiators, John Hadel, Ed Brown, Mark Salvatori, Chuck Moylan, Jeff Swarts, Bill Tillman, Joe Ceoula, Steve Fairchild, Steve Williams, and Mark Gast, continually play each other for that prestigious top spot presently held by the master himself, Mr. Grau.

Darkroom Demons

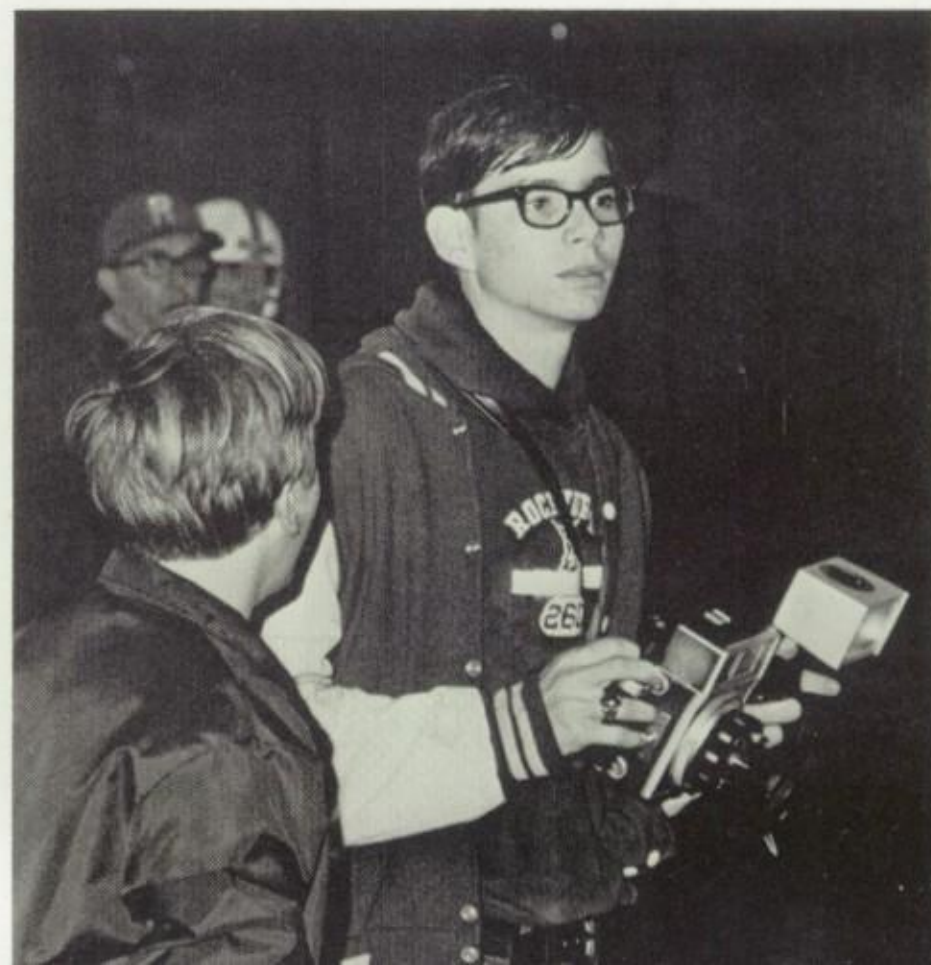

The photography for Quarry '72 was perfected by one man, who did the work of ten men, as only one man, the best, could do. This artist's name was Keith Henige. Probably inconvenienced more than anyone else at Rockhurst, he was called upon at all hours of the day to be everywhere at once by everyone, and oftentimes to put first things last. His answer is this book.

Clocking almost as many hours as the master himself, Tom (Q.T.) O'Halloran aided immensely with tedious and less glorifying work. Setting out as a novice, Tom quickly learned to handle the responsibilities, showing his willingness to work.

Keith was also the lead photographer for the award winning PREP NEWS along with his counterpart Larry Ripperger. Jim Stringer and Mickey Walsh also shared some of the burden.

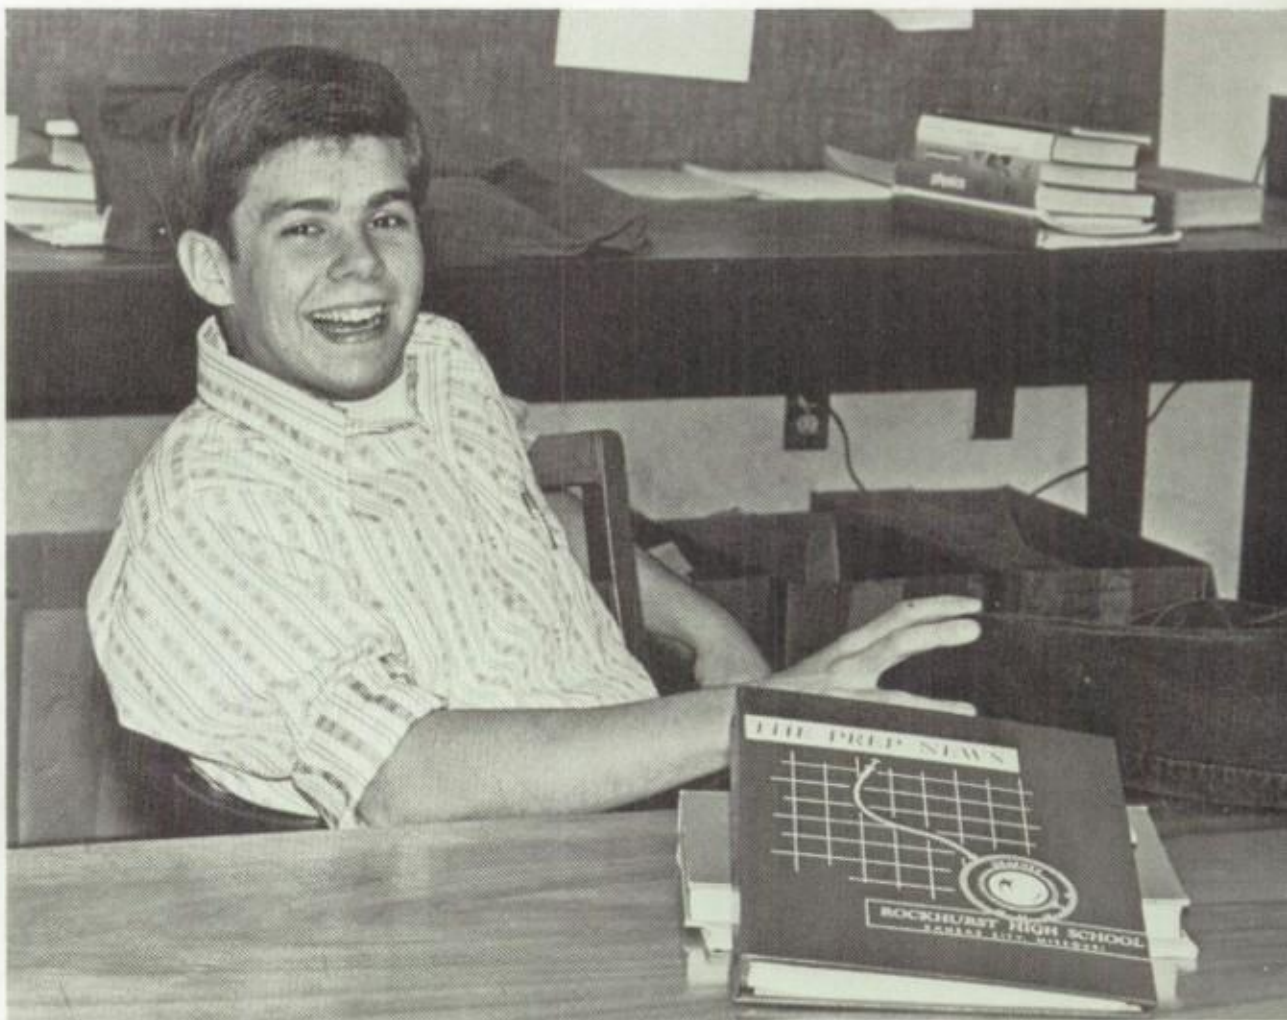

(Above) Larry Ripperger takes dead aim. (Below) At 4 A.M. Keith Henige, known as Ken of K.C., is stunned when informed he still has 27 pictures to print for the 8 A.M. deadline, and (Right) he catches the action at a football game.

PREP NEWS

Mr. Acker, Prep News moderator, seems pleased with this issue.

"Hurry up and take the picture. I've got things to do, people to see, places to go."

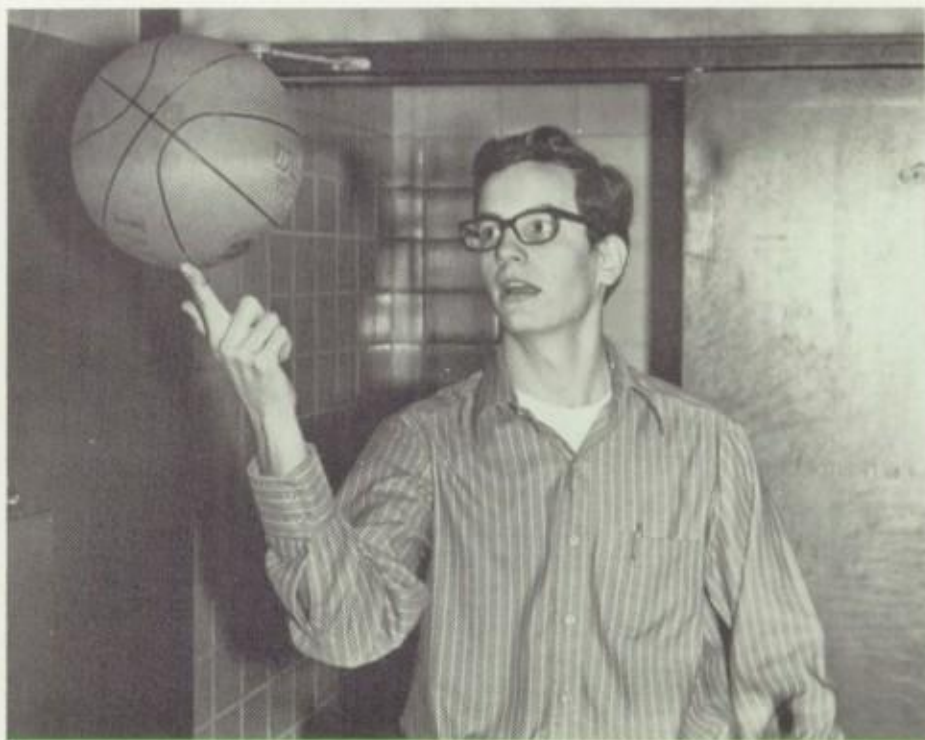

The PREP NEWS staff entered this year with several specific tasks. First, we wanted to continue the tradition of a high quality student newspaper. Second, the spirit of this year demanded a total spectrum of coverage. From social activities to class functions to athletic feats to school-wide programs; active participation by an entire student body made our paper that much bigger and better.

We hope you can look at the PREP NEWS the way it should be—a gauge of your year at Rockhurst. If you can, then it has been a successful publication. We appreciated your constructive comments and words of encouragement. The support we received from students, faculty, and parents kept the paper on time. We tend to discount many of the late week-nights and deadline weekends in favor of the advantages the PREP NEWS allowed us. The chance to talk with Howard Howard Cosell, Evel Kneivel, and Vern Miller far outweighed the burden of copy editing and page layout. Thanks to Mr. Acker and the faculty who allowed us class time to procure the interviews and other stories.

We undertook the PREP NEWS as virtual rookies in the field of journalism. We like to think the last edition has the mark of pros.

Quarry 1972

It's Solid Rock

To be connected with the yearbook in any way one has to be either dedicated or dumb, but mostlikely both. Trying to please everyone who is anybody and succeeding in your won eyes, but never in theirs, is hard to imagine, much less do.

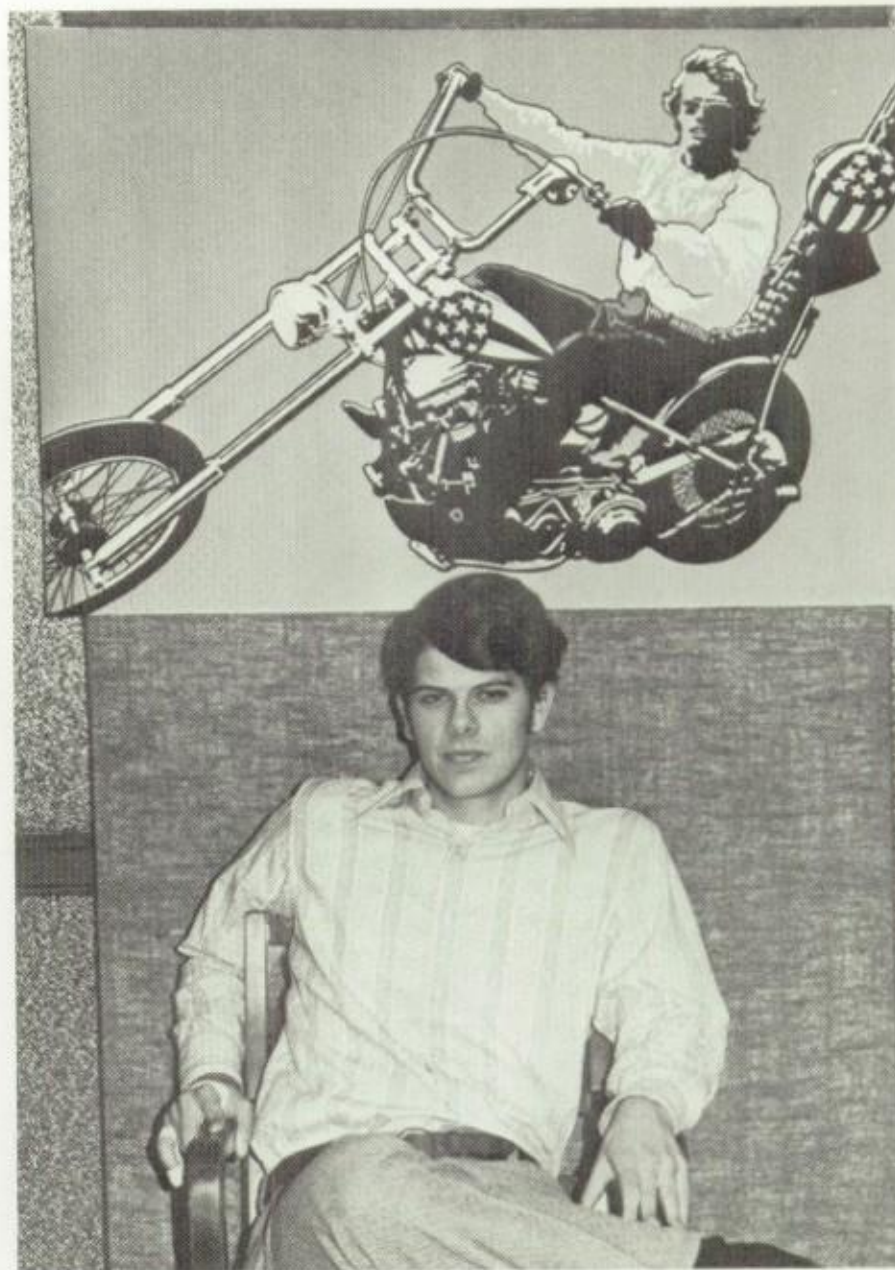

This years annual was brought to you by an artistic amalgamation of charismatic crusaders who threw out the book of conventional characteristics for a pedestrain publication in order to create this monster. Surviving on the staples of life, a coke and a candy bar, they could be found starving and stumbling around the halls at 4 A.M. trying to pose pictures, find the photographer, or simply get out of the building.

Love it or leave it!

Defense Sets Pace in Early Season Games

On August 16, the 1971 Rockhurst Football Squad took the first step of a hoped for state 4A crown by starting summer practice. Of 100 players, Coach Al Davis formed his 40 men squad. The season started on September 10 at Southwest. The Hawklets got both of their touchdowns in the second quarter, one a 31 yard pass from Chris Cummings to Mark Henke and the other a 42 yard Chuck Spinello run. However, in this game, the big key was defense as the Southwest quarterback was dumped six times for 49 yards. Next Friday, Rockhurst played Westport at Dasta Stadium, and won by the score of 21 to 0. The defense again turned in a monumental effort limiting the Westport offense to one first down. Van Horn then came to Rockhurst and became the victim of the Rockhurst defense's second straight shutout, 21 to 0. Fred Nachbar, senior running back and Sophomore Dan Fagan, combined to beat out almost 190 yards rushing. Rockhurst's Kansas rival, Ward, 4A state champs of Kansas, felt the brunt of an awesome Rockhurst attack, offensively and defensively. Chris Cummings completed 7 of 14 for 160 yards, a 23 yard average per completion, and two touchdown tosses to Fred Nachbar. Five times the Hawklets crossed the Ward goal line with three of them coming in the first half. But again, it was the defensive unit which played a brilliant game by holding Ward to a minus 48 yards of total offense. The Ward quarterback was thrown 10 times attempting to pass for 83 yards and two passes were picked off as the defense put up its best effort of the year recording the Hawklet's third straight shutout by an impressive 33 to 0 romp.

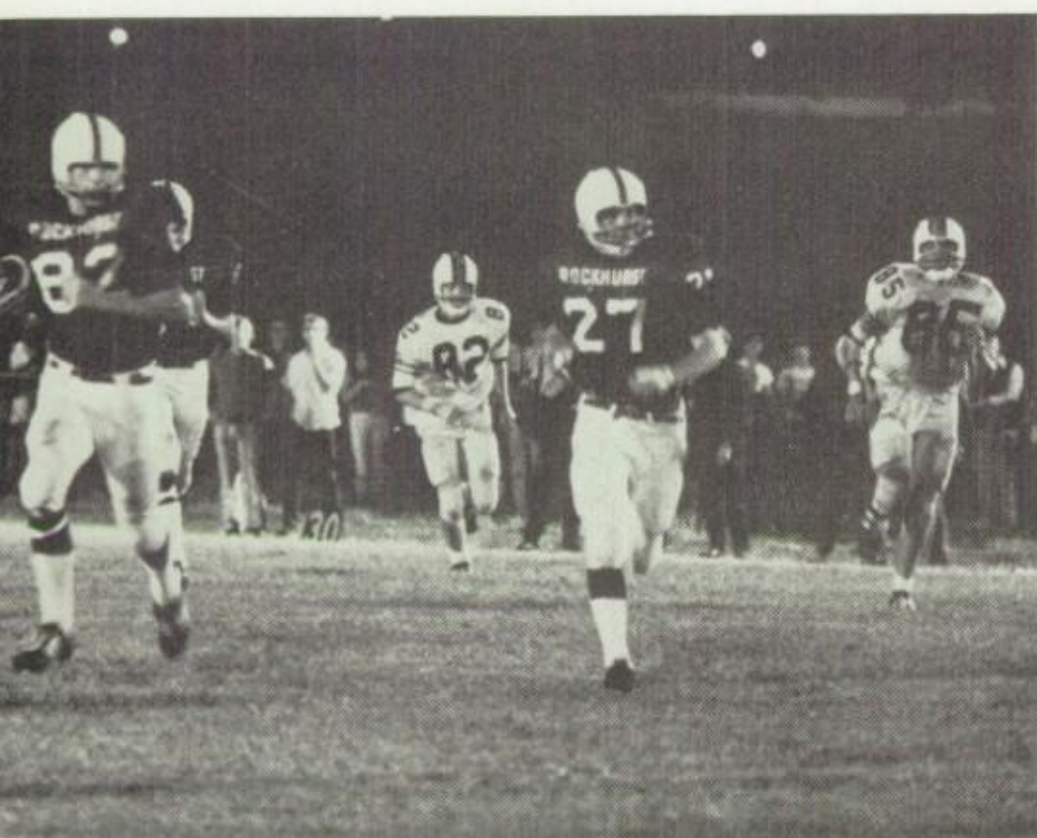

As far as the team was concerned, these first four games were the most important because they showed that Rockhurst had the potential to go all the way.

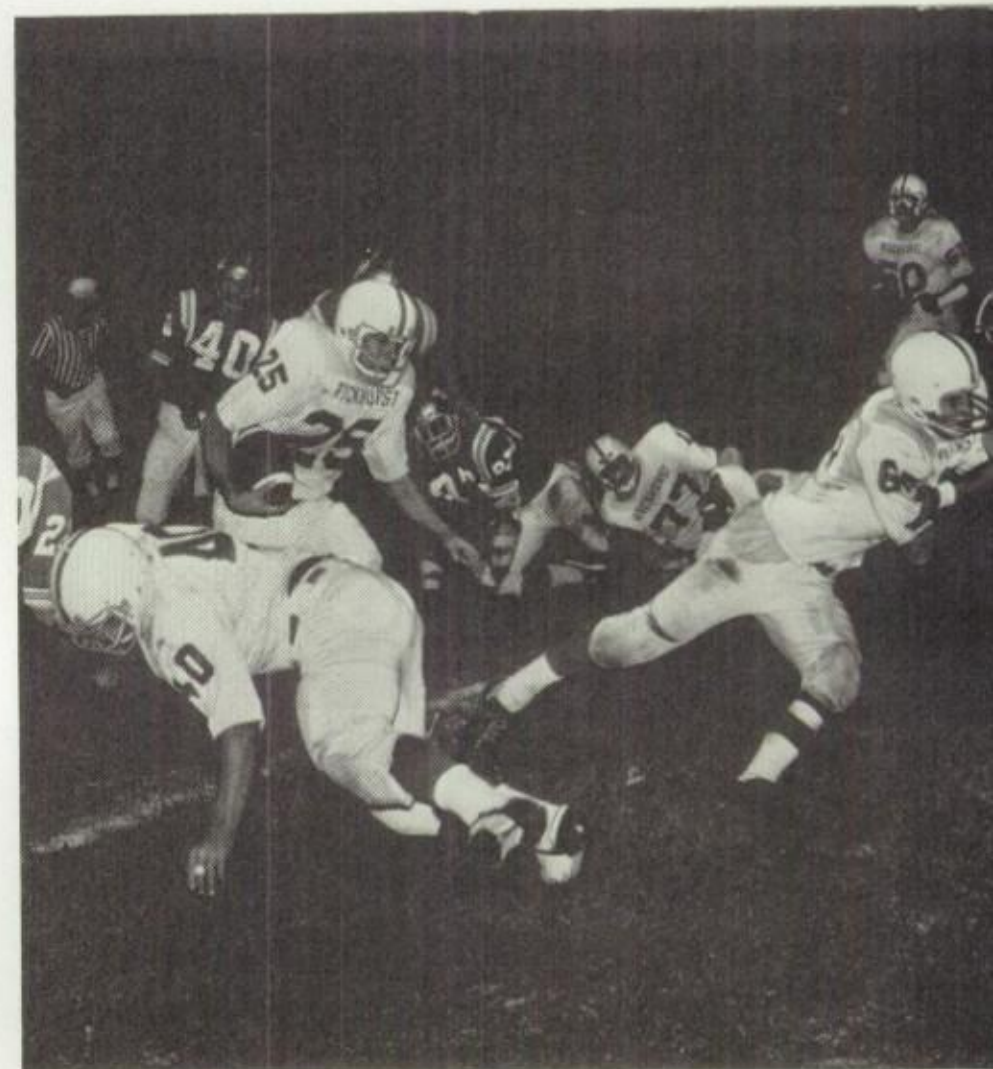

Coach Al Davis, in his 20th year as head coach, and Coach Jerry Culver, defensive coordinator, have teamed up to annually produce a top football squad. These two men have compiled an 85% winning percentage in their three years collaborating as head coaches.

Mark Henke, with Chris Muehlbach leading the way, returns an interception against Ward. The Rockhurst defense stifled the Kansas State Champs.

It was the offensive front line that was responsible for the mammoth cavities which sprung the Hawklet running backs throughout the season.

Mark Henke, one of the Hawklet's brilliant fleet of receivers, hauls in a 24 yard scoring strike from Chris Cummings as a hapless Ray South defender observes. The Raytown defense was simply out-classed by the explosive offense as Rockhurst amassed 400 yards on the ground and through the air.

Dan Fagan, behind Terry McMahon and Chuck Spinello, rambles around end.

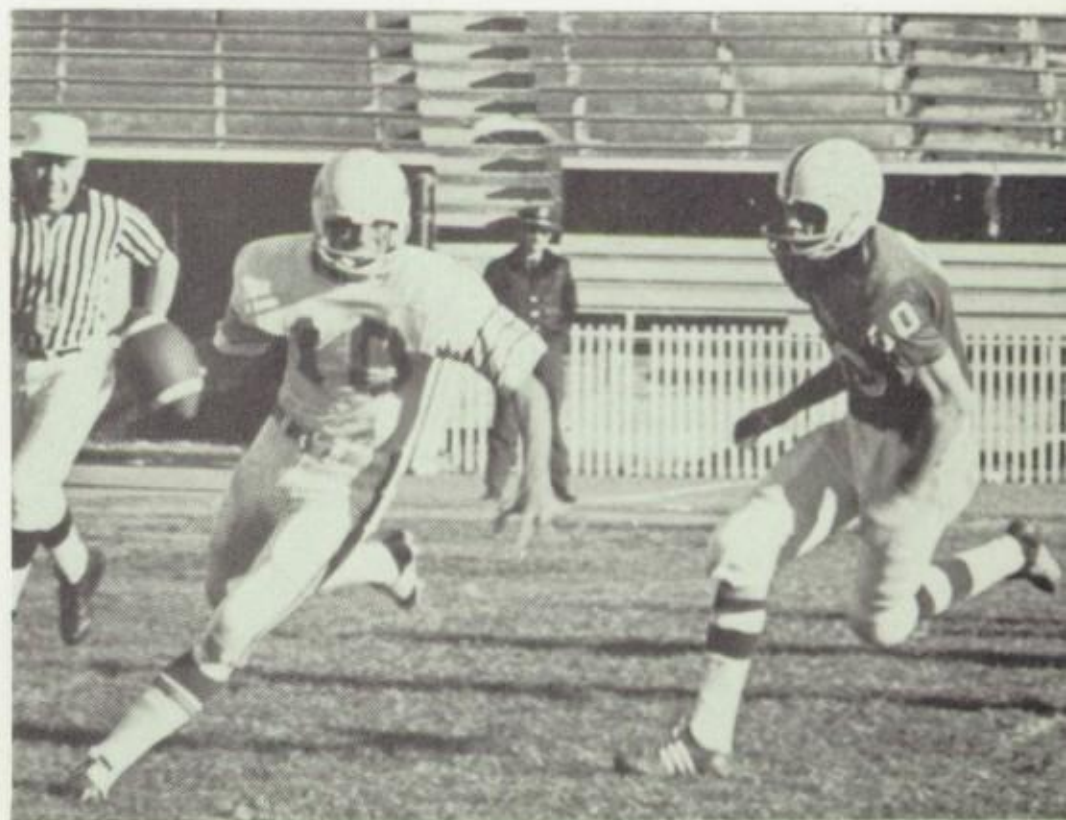

Junior Gerry Kelly runs the option to perfection as he scores against O'Hara. The Hawklet backs ran wild through the porous O'Hara defense.

Offense Jells with Added Game Experience

The second part of the season started away from home against a big, strong Ruskin team whom the Hawklets defeated by a 20 to 6 margin. On the very first possession, Chris Cummings connected with Gary DiGiovanna on a 60 yard touchdown. At Miego, the Rock found it tough going against the fired-up Stag defense, but only for one half. In the second half, the Rockhurst offense pried open the Miego defense with a Fred Nachbar touchdown and a 22 yard Bill Sinovic field goal. On defense, Sean Mulcahy intercepted a Miego pass and lateralled to Larry Hiatt who returned it for a touchdown making the final score Rockhurst 31, Miego 13. In their third straight away game the Hawklets smothered Truman 50 to 7. Chris Cummings threw three aerial strikes for touchdowns and himself ran one for 22 yards. On the ground, the Hawklets were just as unstoppable, pushing through runs of one yard by Fred Nachbar, and a 36 yard run by Gerry Kelly. Rockhurst's homecoming game against Raytown South had an explosive beginning as Fred Nachbar galloped 80 yards to take the opening kickoff in for 6 points. This was the first of his three touchdowns. The mighty Rockhurst ground game overpowered the Ray-South defense as it netted 262 yards and Chris Cummings' passes riddled the fragmented secondary for 116 yards in an impressive display of balance. Rockhurst's final regular season game was against O'Hara. The Rockhurst scoring machine was in full strength against a hapless O'Hara defense as the Hawklets proved with their 44 to 8 romp. A stalwart Rockhurst defense played so brilliantly that O'Hara did not score until very late in the game. The Hawklets pushed the ball over the goal line 7 times and amassed 234 yards rushing in their regular season finale.

The undefeated season was due to the great balance and desire of the entire football team. With a perfect record intact, the Hawklets stormed into the state playoffs.

Rockhurst Sweeps to State Championship

At Tiger Stadium in Columbia the Hawklets came up against their first post-season obstacle. At the onset, both teams were tight, but the Hawklets shrugged it off and recorded a 21-0 shutout over Columbia Hickman. The defense was outstanding in that it did not allow the Kewpies to cross midfield all day. Bill Sinovic's punting was a big factor in this because of his coffin corner kicks and a 69 yarder. The three Rockhurst touchdowns came by a blocked Kewpie punt, a nine yard Chuck Spinello run in third quarter and a 5 yard by Fred Nachbar.

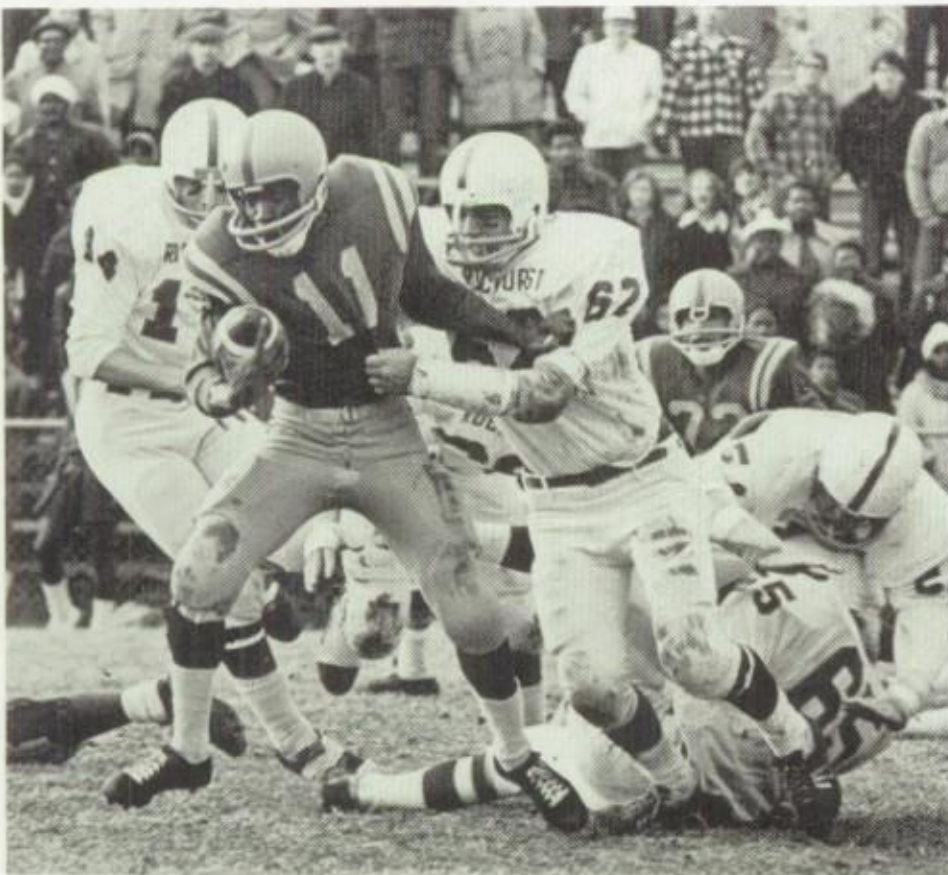

This victory set the stage for the Championship test at William Chrisman High School against Beaumont of St. Louis. At first it seemed that the defense could not stop the powerful Beaumont running attack. However, the team stiffened and yielded no more than 80 yards after the first quarter. The offensive attack was a balanced display of 260 yards. But it was the big gainers that produced the Rockhurst scores. Chris Cummings rifled a 57 yard touchdown pass to Fred Nachbar. Gary DiGiovanna then outraced the Beaumont secondary on his 61 yard score. Cummings' 3 yard sneak made the final score 20-14 Rockhurst.

As with all Championship teams many honors were bestowed on the team. All staters were Chris Cummings, Brian Meyers, and Sean Mulcahy. The district team included Randy Gardner, Brian Meyers, Chris Cummings, Mark Henke, and Sean Mulcahy. Chris Cummings, Brian Meyers, Fred Nachbar, Sean Mulcahy and Randy Gardner make the All-Metro teams with Joe Mihelcic, Gary DiGiovanna, and Paul Kies receiving honorable mention. This team has ably proved to themselves and everyone that they were the very best in Missouri.

Gary DiGiovanna, shown breaking tackles against O'Hara, playing hurt most of the season, still enjoyed an outstanding year, hitting paydirt six times.

Chris Cummings runs a keeper against Beaumont in the state finals. Cummings scored what proved to be the decisive points on this type of play.

Sean Mulcahy pulls down a Beaumont defender who has thwarted Bill Sinovic's attempted punt. The defense stopped the Bluejacket's offense cold, at this point deep in Hawklet territory and the state championship was Rockhurst's.

J.V. Closes Out Fast

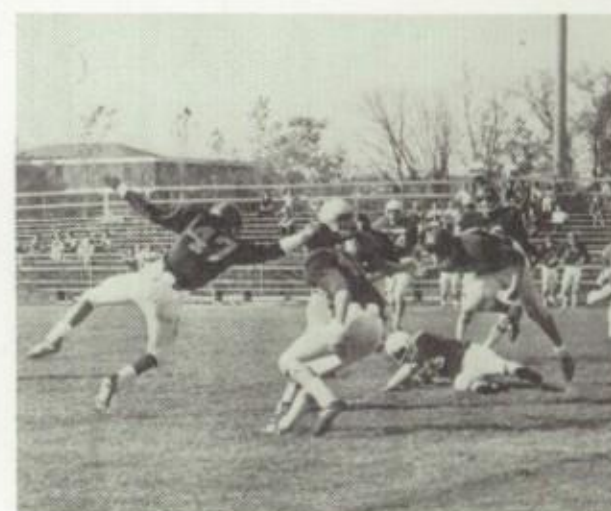

The Rockhurst Hawklet's JV team, coached by Mr. Dennis Sweeney started the season off right by shutting out Southwest 12 to 0. Their next opponent was an inexperienced Westport team and the Hawklets recoredd another shutout, 26 to 0. However, the team did not do too well against Shawnee Mission South and Ward, losing to each 30 to 0 and 8 to 6 respectively. Next, the JV team travelled to Ruskin where a 65 yard touchdown pass with seconds remaining made it 28 to 22 in favor of Ruskin. At Pem-Day next week the Hawklets dropped their fourth straight by the score of 12 to 0. However, the Hawklets got back on the winning track by smothering Truman 32-7. The Hawklets ended their season on a winning note by defeating O'Hara 14-8.

Sophs Display Teamwork

The Hawklet Sophomore team, under the leadership of Coach Greg Stevens, S.J., rolled up a 5 and 2 season record. This hard hitting team played Wyandotte first and won 14 to 0. The sophomores won two of their next three games and then came up against the Miego JV. The Hawklets scored by a 25 yard pass reception by Tony Migliazzo and the all important extra point. In the second half, the solid sophomore defense held Miego scoreless and the final score was Rockhurst 7, Miego 6. The season ended by winning against Lillis but losing to Shawnee Mission East.

Freshman "A" Go Unscathed

The Freshman A team outclassed all their opponents while coasting to a 5-0 season record. The potent offense was led by Chris Garlich and Rich Dolan, both backs, who scored 30 points each. This year's freshman team was versatile in that 7 played both ways. Four were linemen: Marty McInerney, Ferd Heschmeyer, Steve Reintjes and Mike Carney. The other three were Rich Dolan, Chris Garlich and Paul Goehausen. John Sweeney handled the place kicking duty and Chris Garlich punted. The freshman team beat their opponents by an average of 33 points and only allowed two touchdowns the past ever alert defense. This team has aptly proved that they have the potential of carrying on the fine Rockhurst football tradition.

Frosh "B" Also Undefeated

The Freshman B team also had a good year, going 3 and 0 by beating Ward, then Center South, and finally O'Hara. The scoring leaders of the offense which scored 70 points in 3 games were fullback Binky McAllister and left halfback Brian Gepford. Mark Callegari and Larry LoScalzo who led in interceptions with 4, helped pace the stingy defense. On offense, the quarterback was John Masterson and Adriano Galvez was the right halfback. This year's freshmen squad, A and B set a standard that future Rockhurst football teams will find hard to equal.

Racketeers Rebuild

Tennis season started early as players worked hard to have their games in shape for the mid-April opener. The Tennis team, master-minded by Mr. Berkley Jones, S.J., faced the colossal task of replacing all of the varsity racketeers save one. Lonnie Taylor, winner of the Kansas City Inter-Club Singles Tourney and the Kansas City Open D Doubles Tilte, was the only returning varsity letterman. Al Tomaszczuk, Tom Soptick, Paul Smith, Jay Koehler, Joe Fiorella, and Tim Soptick were returning Junior Varsity lettermen. Dual meets taht the tennies took part in were against Barstow, Pem Day, Chrisman, Van Horn, Wyandotte, Southwest, S.M. South, Truman, Center, and St. Joe Central. Highlight of the regular season was an all day tourney at S.M. East. Considering the inexperience the team fared well.

CC Comes of Age

After six winless seasons, the Rockhurst Hawklet Cross Country team won two meets, a new school record. Van Horn and St. Pius could not outdistance the Hawklet harriers as they lost by scores of 35 to 20 and 32 to 25. The team wound up with a 2-3 record in dual and triangular meets. In addition the Hawklets made a good showing in the Independents Invitational, missing the top spot by only three points, as they placed third of seven teams. The team competed with several good teams in the invitational meets and the results were respectable. The team also boasted individual talent. Senior Mike Gordon set three new Rockhurst records: a 10:56 at the Swope Park course, a 9:56 at Rosedale, and a 11:06 at Longview Community College. The cross country team and Fr. McCabe, S.J., are to be congratulated and be proud of their fine season.

Aces in the Hole

This year's version of the Hawklet golf team, coached by Mr. Marion Nickel, was built around a solid core of three returning lettermen, Mark Henke, John DeBacco, and Joe Schroer. Others playing on the varsity level were Jim Kealing, Kenny Neuner, Steve Williams, Mike Benge, and Steve Fairchild. Playing on courses such as Blue Hills, Indian Hills, Milburn, and Mission Hills, these men competed against such formidable opponents as Southwest, Pem-Day, and Miego. Also this year, a four-man team competed in the William Jewell Invitational on April 17 in Liberty, Missouri, and also in the Shawnee Misison Invitational. Although there was no junior varsity, sophomore or JV matches were scheduled against Center and Ray South. The big tournaments were the District Play-offs held on May 8, and the State. In this our four-man team competed for one of the three state playoff berths.

Track Team Blends Experience and Talent

This year's track squad was a blend of experienced seniors and talented underclassmen. The ten returning lettermen were joined by a group of strong juniors. The team was strongest in field events. Led by shot putter Bob Sweeney, a finalist in the National Junior Olympics in Colorado Springs, the team consistently scored points in the field events. Others lending help in this area were Dave Laird, Steve Burger, and Paul Kies. In the distance events Mike Gordon and Don Fitzgerald were the leaders. Bob Gillis and Dave Hodes were the main middle-distance threats. The hurdlers, led by John Garlich, were stronger than ever. Chris Muehlbach was the Hawks main hope in the sprints. It can be said that this year's track team was one of the strongest in recent years.

Grapplers Wrestle With Inexperience

Despite the record, the 1971-1972 wrestling season was encouraging. Compiling a 6-7 record against such wrestling powers as Ruskin, S.M. South, and Southwest, the grappler gained much needed experience. The many long hours of practice under Coach Tuckness and new J.V. Coach, Mr. Noll, were not all in vain as the matmen began to solidify in the latter stages of the season. This is shown in the wrestler's most impressive win of the season, a 56-3 mauling of arch-rival Miego. Sophomores and juniors played a large part in the team and with added match experience became very competitive. The seniors on the squad responded to their leadership responsibilities with good seasons. Terry O'Rourke, Greg Orpin, and Dave Owens contributed key points. Outstanding underclassmen were Dave Medina with a 22-4 record and a district title, Pete Hodes with a 10-4-1 mark, Mike Darby with a 13-5 season, and John Garlich with a 10-6-2 record. Other grapplers gaining needed experience were Koppes, Ward, Enright, Garlich, Gargotta, Keirnan, and Byrnes.

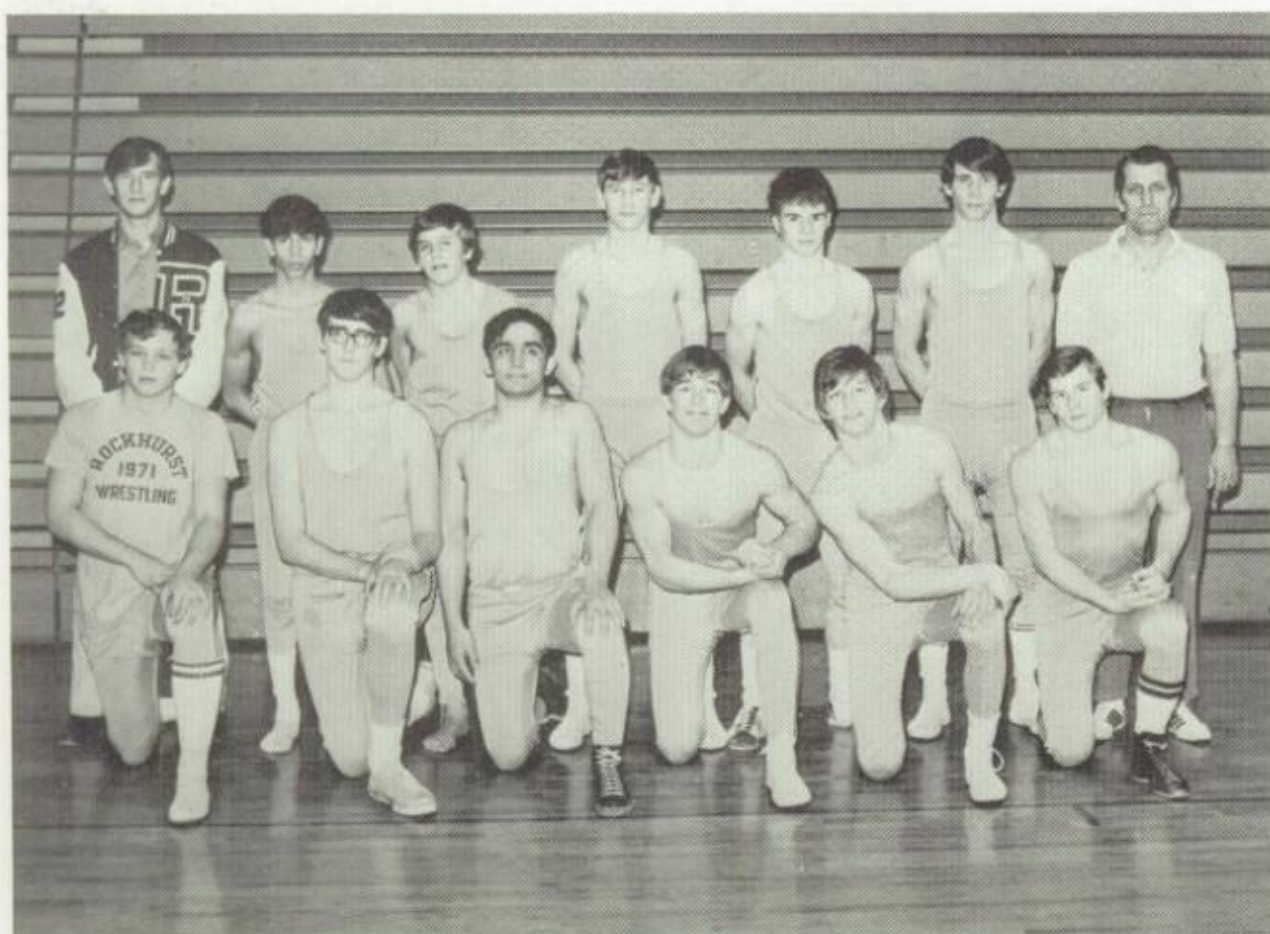

This year's Juniata Varsity wrestling team had a splendid season, finishing 9-5. The J.V. started out slow, losing 3 out of their first 4, but then came on to win 8 out of the last 10 matches, winning 8 in a row. Some of the individual stars were Nichols and Ward, both undefeated in 8 matches, Gremli, 9-1, and Storey, 8-2. With the addition of these talented J.V. men, the varsity can look forward to increasing success in future years.

Mudmen Capture Fourth Consecutive League Title

If there was a word to describe this year's soccer team, it was gutty. Faced with key injuries, inexperience, and the toughest Metro-Prep League ever, the team, under Coach Salter, brought home the fourth consecutive league championship. The main key offensively was the work of Joe Hilboldt. He assumed the scoring role vacated by the injured Gus Jimenez and scored nine goals. But in soccer you do not win without defense. Bill Sinovic, placekicker for the football team, became one of the best fullbacks ever to play in the league. Sinovic and Hilboldt were elected to the All-Metro team. The other key to the Rockhurst defense, which allowed only .66 goals per game, was Sophomore Kevin Rudolph. In the ten games he played Rudolph allowed just three goals. Another reason why the team became a top-notch unit was the untiring effort of other key people. People like Jim Van Dyke, Dennis Maher, and Mike Hilboldt gave unbelievable effort. These ingredients added up to a league title.

The JV soccer team's season was not a success if you use the criterion of winning. The record was 0-5. The team was made-up almost entirely of freshmen and sophomores, who had played little or no soccer. The season was spent learning fundamentals and getting a sense of what it means to play team soccer. With this as a criterion the season was very successful. The players progressed to the point that at the end of the year they played competitive soccer. People to look ofr in the future are Greg Sizemore, Ed Chartrand, Mark Fitzpatrick, and John Paton.

Cagers Open with Wins Over State Finalists

This year's varsity basketball team opened practice on October 18. Seventy players went through the pre-season drills. The squad had a tough act to follow with the b-ball Hawks capturing second and third in the state the last two years. With the tallest team that Rockhurst has fielded in recent years, hopes for this same type of success were high.

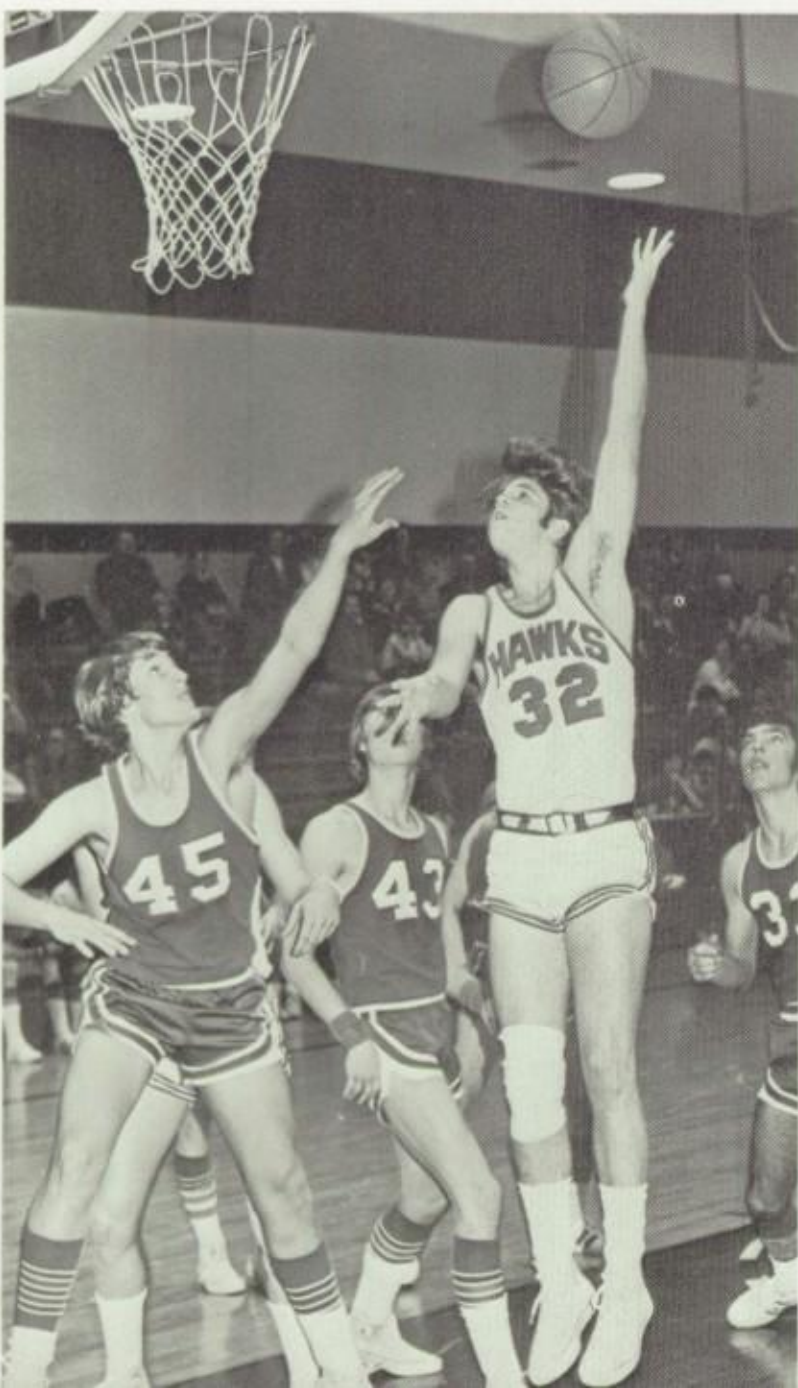

The Hawks opened at home against the eventual Class L state champs. Ray-South. Rick Ruckdaschel outplayed South's all-stater Ed Stoll throughout the game and kept the Hawks close. The hero of the game though was Kevin O'Flaherty. O'Flaherty stole the ball in the last five seconds but missed the ensuing lay-up. He got the rebound and hit a seven foot fade-away jumper at the buzzer and the Hawks won, 60-58. The next night the Hawks travelled to Truman but came up one point short, 65-64. The telling factor in the loss was Rockhurst's 27% shooting. Rockhurst then met the Class M runner-up, St. Pius. With Cummings and O'Flaherty sidelined by illness, Jeff Grasser stepped in and hit a Hawk season high of 28 points. Pius proved no match for the Hawks as they won easily, 71-46. Coming off this Rockhurst lost for the first time ever to Miego, 55-48. The Hawks then met Ward. The lead changed hands 10 times and neither team led by more than 5. Dave Rau had the ball stolen from him with 10 seconds left and Ward capitalized for a 52-51 win. The next night the Hawks rebounded from this loss and defeated Southeast, 64-53. After the Christmas break the Hawks faced a talented Grandview team. Rick Ruckdaschel hit 17 points to key a 51-47 Rockhurst win. The Hawks then faced state quarter-finalist Central. The Blue Eagles controlled the game throughout, winning 59-51.

B-ballers Struggle Around .500 Mark

The cagers next opponent was Ruskin. Grasser hit four straight fourth quarter bombs and the Hawks owned a 54-51 victory over the Eagles. Rockhurst then faced the Suburban 9 Conference Co-Champions, Raytown. The Hawks controlled the game completely in the first half, but a 13-0 Bluejay streak did the Rock in, 63-60. The North Kansas City Tournament was next for the Hawks. First round foe Northeast was no match for the Hawks and fee, 74-40. Chris Bolin popped in a game high of 17 points. In the semi-finals the Hawks again met Ray-South. The game was tight until the fourth quarter when the Cards hit 16 straight free throws to wrap up the win. The b-ballers then met North Kansas City. Rick Ruckdaschel hit 22 points in one of the Hawks best performances of the year, winning 79-66 and placing third in the tourney. Rockhurst then went to Memorial Hall to play arch-rival Ward. The Hawks outstatisted the Cyclones everywhere but on the scoreboard, losing 62-57. Pem Day then came to Rockhurst to face the Hawks, but the Raiders were wasting their time. Putting on an awesome offensive display, the Hawks mangled the visitors, 89-75. William Chrisman then hosted the Hawks. Ruckdaschel rammed home 19 points, and the Rock emerged with a 73-53 decision. Shawnee Mission South, the 5A Kansas runners-up, then faced Rockhurst. The Hawks battled the Raiders even for three quarters but South finally wore the Rock down, winning 56-45. Senior Guard Tim Alyward cuts loose for two.

Varsity Wins 5 of Last 7

The last part of the basketball season opened in Municipal Auditorium against Miego. Stan Murphy hit 17 points for Miego in the first half and the Hawks fell behind, 26-21. In the third quarter Chris Whitaker hit 9 points and the Hawk press forced numerous turnovers to spark the comeback win, 63-52. The regular season ended with a game against O'Hara at Rockhurst. The Hawks, with Chris Cummings and Rick Ruckdaschel hitting 13 points apiece, led from the start and were never headed winning, 62-57. The telling factor in the game was the Hawks 48-23 rebounding edge. Regional play opened at Center against Nevada. The Hawks jumped to an 11-3 lead but ended up fighting for their lives to capture a 57-52 victory. Ruckdaschel and Morris made up for a poor shooting night by grabbing 11 and 13 rebounds, respectively. The Hawks then faced the second seeded team, Center. Rockhurst hit the first basket and never led after that point. Center hit 78% from the foul line and the Hawks failed to cash their charity chances, and lost 65-52.

J.V.'s Play Erratic

The Junior Varsity started their season slowly, losing to Ray-South, Pius, Miego, and Ward, with a lone victory over Truman. The J.V. then downed their next five foes: Southeast, Grandview, Central, Ruskin, and Raytown, with balance scoring marking each win. An old J.V. nemesis, Ward, ended the streak. The Hawks came back to man-handle Pem Day 58-30 with Stockbauer and Samuels hitting 16 apiece. The J.V. then beat Chrisman, 71-54, with five players in double figures. The following night the jayvee lost to a talented S.M. South Squad. The J.V. turned in an almost flawless performance against Miego. Thirteen players scored as the Hawks massacred the Stags, 80-37. The J.V. closed their season losing to O'Hara 59-52. The Junior Varsity showed the type of play that will keep the quality of Rockhurst basketball high.

Sophs Capture Ward Meet

This year's edition of the Sophomore basketball team, under the guidance of Coach Craig Cummings, completed their schedule with a 9-6 record. Making big contributions to the team were Mark Samuels, with a 13.2 scoring average in four games, Tom Baker-8.2, and Terry McKay-8.3. The highlight of the season for the title at the Ward Tourney. After demolishing O'Hara in the first round, the Hawks fought off a tough Leavenworth squad for a 58-52 triumph and the tournament crown. In that game Samuels netted a Soph season high of 20 points. The Hawks faced the toughest competition in the area in Wyandotte, Ward, Ray-South, and S.M. South and the results were favorable. The Sophomore team's record is further proof that Rockhurst is THE basketball power in Kansas City.

Freshman "A" Undefeated

The 1972 Rockhurst Freshman "A" cagers, under Coach Roger Jackson, completed their season with an unblemished record. Blending individual talent and teamwork, the Frosh finished with a 14-0 mark. Leading the team were Jim Pachak and John Sweeney, with 16 and 12 point averages, respectively. Other key performers included center Dave Draney and playmaker Alan White. The frosh took on the toughest teams in the city, Hogan and O'Hara. The freshmen defeated Hogan in their only meeting, and downed O'Hara twice. High point productions for the year were 28 by Pachak against Hogan and 30 by Sweeney versus Palmer. Other men who may become a part of varsity are Mark Goodspeed and Dan Dierks. Anyone who saw the frosh play could see that the Rockhurst basketball tradition will be in good hands for the next four years.

Frosh "B" Gain Experience

Because of the Unique basketball talent present in the Freshman class, a Frosh "B" team was formed. The team provided experience for "A" team subs and others that may become varsity performers. Because of scheduling difficulties the team was limited to a four game season, almost all against "A" team competition. People playing big roles on the team were Dave Kies and Marty McNerney. Kies scored a "B" team high of 17 points in a contest against a rough Barstow "A" five. McNerney carried a seasonal average of 12 points. Other key performers were John Masterson, Jon Haden, Tom Manning, John Scanlon, and John Duchardt.

It is absurd to talk of the ignorance of youth. The only people to whose opinions I listen now with any respect are people much younger than myself. They seem in front of me.

After he had journeyed, and his feet were sore, and he was tired, He came upon an orange grove, and he rested, and he lay in the cool. And while he rested he took to himself an orange, and he tasted it. And it was good. And he felt the earth to his spine, and he asked, And he saw the tree above him, and the stars, and the veins in the leaf, And the light, and the balance. And he saw magnificent perfection. Whereon he thought of himself in balance, and he knew he was.

Just open your eyes and realize the way it's always been.
Just open your mind and you will find, the way it's always been.
Just open your heart, and that's a start.

If we only have love, then tomorrow will dawn; And the days of our years will rise on that morn. If we only have love, then we'll only be men, And we'll drink from the Grail, to be born once again. Then with nothing at all, but the little we are, We'll have conquered all time, all space, the sun, and the stars.

THE STORY OF THE CREATION
In the beginning we created a theme, and Keith said, "Let there be color." . . . In The sixth month we finished the work we had been doing. And saw that it was good. And we rested on the seventh deadline.
